Being Prepared for an Emergency

We all know that having a clear, efficient disaster plan is important for your facility. But lately we've seen this first hand with the California wildfires that have caused evacuations of many care facilities around the state. It's important to be prepared for a number of emergencies that could impact your care home, residents and staff. In fact, a newly passed bill (AB 304) is enforcing that facilities have a plan in the event of an emergency. A summary of bill (AB 304) states:

The statues created by this bill require every community care facility (CCF) and residential care facility for the elderly (RCFE) to provide a disaster and mass casualty plan, upon request by any fire department, law enforcement agency, civil defense and/or other disaster authority in your area.

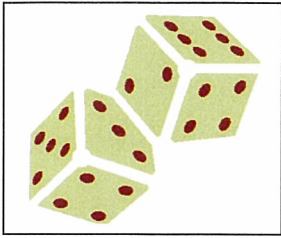

Remember this bill is now enforceable and having a plan in an emergency is an essential part of providing for the well-being of your residents and staff. If you do not have a plan, check out our Fire and Disaster Manual. It is a thorough disaster plan that has everything you need to prepare and protect your care facility. We are also offering a Disaster Preparedness class (6 C.E.U's) to assist you in understanding the issues important to protecting your facility in an emergency. Please see the column on the left for the dates and locations. Call our office if you have any questions or would like to order your copy of the Fire and Disaster Manual.

We've made some Changes!!

If you have a moment, make sure to check out our website, www.communitycareoptions.com. We're in the process of making some significant changes. It's still under construction but we hope that it will be a bit more user friendly. You can order products, sign up for classes, and look up information on facilities. Make sure to check back often because we will always have a list of our upcoming classes. Also, we are excited to announce that in the coming months we will be launching our online classes!

Reminder to members--please check your facility information on our website to make sure it is correct and up- to-date. Let us know if any changes need to be made!
